

That Little Man of Mine Playoff

8A

TACET

Charlie's Birthday

8B

TACET

If Your Father Were Here

9

JOSEPHINE: Poor Charlie.

GEORGINA: We should never have let him get his hopes up.

GEORGE: What hopes?

GRANDPA JOE: It's all my fault.

MRS. BUCKET: It's not your fault Joe.

Poor Charlie never stood a chance.

GEORGINA: Speak to him, dear. /GO/

"In 4"

Lullaby ♩ = 66

MRS. BUCKET: Mama,
I don't know what to say.GEORGINA: You'll think of something.MRS. BUCKET: Oh Charlie. You can't help dreaming. It's in the Bucket blood.

5 Freely

7 hang you the moon and then he'd bot - tle the stars. I would

9 say brush your teeth, is that dirt be - hind your ear? But you'd be

A Tempo ♩ = 66

Mrs. Bucket:

11 dream - ing if your fath - er were here. If your fath -

14 A Tempo
er were here you would not be in bed; you'd be act - ing out the sto - ries from the books

17 that you've read. He'd be walk - ing the plank of Char - lie

Mrs. Bucket & Grandparents:

19 Buck - et, buc - ca - neer. You'd be sail - ing if your fath - er were here. And if

22 wish - es were hors - es we could gal - lop a - way and if cab -

Mrs. Bucket:

24 bag - es were watch - es I would know the time all day. Ah, but all -

26 we can of - fer you are dreams in eve - ry

28 size, so, close your eyes Char - lie Buck - et, close your eyes...

7
31-37

4
39-42

Poco rit.

Slower

Mrs. Bucket:

45 46 47

so, close your eyes— Char - lie Buck - et, close your eyes...— If your fath -

48 A Tempo ♩ = 66

49 50

- er were here— he would ban - ish the cold. I can still feel his laugh - ter and the hand

51 52

— I would hold.— As I'm watch - ing you grow— inch by

Colla Voce

53 54 55

inch by inch by year, I would thank him if your fath - er were

56 A Tempo ♩ = 66

Poco rall.

57 58 59

here. —————

Applause Segue

Stay Safe Out There

9A

TACET